

TEAM REVIEW GUIDE FOR BRS AND HIGH SCHOOL TRANSITION TEAMS

Eligibility Presumption: SSI or a registered DMR client (SSI student recipients must re-apply at age 18 as adults)

SSDI recipients are not presumed eligible because students can receive payments from their parent(s) until age 18 and not be disabled.

ALL I.Q. TESTS MUST BE ADULT INTELLIGENCE TESTS (WAIS)

M.R./I.D./Autism (full scale IQ below 70)

Test Date _____

Verbal IQ _____ Performance IQ _____ Full Scale IQ _____

Adaptive Scales _____

Learning Disability (a 17-point discrepancy is considered significant between verbal and performance I.Q.)

Please Note: Deficits due to low academic achievement, poor attendance, English as a Second Language, cultural diversity, emotional problems, visual, hearing, physical impairments or mental retardation are not considered a learning disability.

Test Date _____ Verbal IQ _____ Performance IQ _____ Full Scale IQ _____

OR

A 17-point discrepancy, is considered significant between Full Scale IQ and Academic Achievement Composites.

Full Scale IQ _____ Achievement Test Type _____ Test Date _____

Composites:

Reading _____ Spelling _____ Math _____ Writing _____ Knowledge _____

S.E.D.

DSM IV Diagnosis _____

Treatment or intervention(s) _____

Cognitive Processing Disorders (Speech and Language Impairment etc.)

See L.D. info

Tests of language skills, cognitive processing (TONI, CLEP, neuropsychological etc.)

Test Date _____ Test Type _____

Other Health Impairment

Documentation of disability _____

Functional issues _____