

Andrew J. Flanagan Memorial Scholarship

The Flanagan Scholarship for Active Firefighters

This scholarship program was established in 1974 by the Connecticut State Firefighters Association, the Connecticut Fire Chief's Association, the Connecticut Fire Marshall's Association, and the Connecticut Fire Department Instructors Association to honor the memory of Andrew J. Flanagan.

Andy Flanagan was for many years the training officer for the New Haven Fire Department, as well as the Treasurer of the Connecticut State Fireman's Association. Following his retirement from the department as a Battalion Chief, he was selected the first full-time Director of Fire Training for the State of Connecticut. The position he held until his death in 1972.

Andy was a strong proponent of continuing education for firefighters and was instrumental in establishing the Connecticut Community/Technical College – Fire Administration Associate Degree Program. These scholarship awards are granted in an effort to carry on with his vision.

Several Scholarships will be awarded. Attached is an application form.
