

SMALL BUSINESS IMPACT STATEMENT

Prior to adopting a new section or amendment, Section 4-168a of the Connecticut General Statutes (C.G.S.) requires that each state agency consider the affect of such action on small businesses as defined in C.G.S. Section 4-168a. When such a regulatory action may have an adverse affect on small businesses, C.G.S. Section 4-168a directs the agency to consider regulatory requirements that will minimize the adverse impacts on small businesses if the addition of such requirements (1) will not interfere with the intended objectives of the regulatory action and (2) will allow the new section or amendment to remain consistent with public health, safety and welfare.

These proposed regulations update the well drilling code and codify the best practices of the geothermal industry. Four new limited licenses for geothermal work are created, where currently either a licensed well drilling contractor or an unlicensed person performed the drilling work. The additional license fees correspond to other limited plumbing license types, with revenue going to the General Fund. The Department expects a small number of new licensees, mainly for the installation of "DX" systems, since unlicensed persons are typically used for this type of shallow-depth drilling.
