Information provided by the provider describing their agency:

Founded by Jean Griswold, M.Ed., P.G.C., a minister's wife and Multiple Sclerosis survivor, Griswold Home Care has helped over 100,000 families since 1982. Devoting her life to helping others, Jean combined her personal experiences with a background in geriatric counseling to create an organization dedicated to responding to the growing need for home care services.

Placing great emphasis on selective screening and a deep understanding of the clients needs, Griswold Home Care sets the industry standard for providing the highest quality professional caregivers at an affordable price. Our caregivers are paid competitively so that we can attract the best individuals in the community, yet, we keep our overhead to a minimum to remain the wisest financial alternative for our clients and their families.

Griswold Home Care caregivers have experience with Multiple Sclerosis, Alzheimer's, Dementia, Cancer, AIDS, Cerebral Palsy, ALS and many other afflictions. Just as importantly, they have a passion for caring and a commitment to helping clients remain independent and at home.
