Information provided by the provider describing their agency:

Professional staffing include Clinicians, Behaviorists, Occupational Therapists, Speech & Language Pathologists, Educators, and direct care working with families across Connecticut.

In-home Service Supports assists family members in keeping their loved one at home. Comprehensive individualized care plans are developed to meet needs in developing communication, social and academic skills.

Continuous Residential Support homes, each with 3 individuals (children or young adults) challenged with ASD, I/DD and complex behavioral health needs, are located in close proximity to their family members across the entire state. Our suburban neighborhood homes are staffed 24/7 to provide the 1:1 support necessary to assist each individual with daily living, school or employment, and social activity. Families are encouraged to be an integral part of their loved-one's life.

Two residential programs, centrally located in Cromwell, include Jordan House for boys ages 13-21 challenged with intellectual/developmental disabilities, and Nathan House serving boys on the autism spectrum. Shiloh House, a comprehensive multidisciplinary assessment program, determines the level of specific individualized supports needed for youth ages 10-19 with ASD, I/DD paired with complex behavioral health challenges.

Two Special Education schools, approved by the Connecticut State Department of Education, include a campus in Cromwell serving students ages 11-21 and a Manchester campus serving children ages 4-10. Both schools have a sensory room and technology geared toward youth with ASD. Manchester maintains an innovative progressive playground. Extended school year is offered in the summer to include small classes, arts integration through Wesleyan's Green Street Arts Center, business-based vocational/job training, and an intramural athletics program. Our Middletown Transitional Academy and Individual Day Supports Program affords vocational training and hands-on work experience in the surrounding business district.

Our Outpatient Clinic serves children and adults by providing therapy services, psychiatric evaluations, and ADOS screening. Specializations include work with ASD, I/DD, and TBI.
