Information provided by the provider describing their agency:

Mr. Glenroy Patrick Patterson has been working with individuals diagnosed with Autism since 2001. Throughout the course of his career, Mr. Patterson has worked in many settings and has been providing Applied Behavior Analytical services to individuals and their families: in home ABA support, residential outplacement, and Education, district and classroom level. Mr. Patterson’s scope of practice has instilled within him the belief that, no two individuals are the same, challenging behavior should be approached individually, and interventions should be driven by objective measures and effective procedures. Mr. Patterson holds his Clinical M.S degree in Applied Behavior Analysis from the Florida Institute of Technology, Melbourne Campus. He has studied under the mentorship and leadership of Dr. Jose Martinez-Dias, Dr. Eb Blakely and other prominent researchers in the field of ABA. Presently, Mr. Patterson is the Director of Developmental Services at the Children Center of Hamden.
