Information provided by the provider describing their agency:

Geanna Partland graduated from the University of Hartford with a Bachelor’s degree in Early Childhood Education and a Master’s degree in Special Education. She earned a Graduate Academic Certificate in Applied Behavior Analysis from the University of North Texas and has been a Board Certified Behavior Analyst since 2005. She has over 15 years of experience in the field of Autism Spectrum Disorders and Developmental Disabilities.

Geanna is well versed in conducting functional behavioral assessments and writing behavior analytic treatment plans. Each plan is personalized with an emphasis on proactive strategies, facilitation of appropriate replacement behaviors and building upon an individual’s strengths. She has notable experience with facilitating augmentative communication, using social stories and visual strategies, and teaching skills functionally resulting in generalization and maintenance of learned behaviors.

Geanna has worked in a variety of settings including home/community programs, intensive special education schools, and public schools. Within these settings, she has developed and guided programming that ensures her students have the highest likelihood of success in their educational placements as well as in their social lives.
