

STATE OF CONNECTICUT
DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC SAFETY
OFFICE OF THE COMMISSIONER

James M. Thomas
Commissioner

Lieutenant Edwin S. Henion
Chief of Staff

Welcome to the Department of Public Safety's website.

The Connecticut Department of Public Safety is committed to protecting and improving the quality of life for all by providing enforcement, regulatory and scientific services through prevention, education and innovative use of technology.

The Department of Public Safety (DPS) is composed of three divisions: the Division of State Police, the Division of Fire, Emergency and Building Services and the Division of Scientific Services, which all work collectively to ensure the very best public safety response and provide informational and educational programs for the citizens, businesses and visitors to our state.

The Department is privileged that the State of Connecticut, through the support of Governor M. Jodi Rell, and other key agencies, has provided DPS with the very best of the latest technologies and equipment available.

I speak on behalf of all the talented and dedicated men and women who work for the Department, when I state that we are committed to the safety and well being of all the citizens of Connecticut.

I urge you to take advantage of all of the information available to you through our website, where you can find detailed information of each Division and what services we offer. If we can be of further assistance, please contact us at any of the direct numbers listed on the website or visit a Connecticut State Police Troop.
