PRESS ADVISORY

Connecticut State Police Press Conference Memorial Day Weekend Operation

On Thursday, 05/26/2005 at 11 A.M. the Connecticut State Police will hold a visual press conference this week to announce their participation in the National C.A.R.E. (Combined Accident Reduction Effort) program over this Memorial Day Weekend.

This conference will be held at Brainard Airport to afford the State Police to showcase some of the law enforcement tools that will be used during the C.A.R.E. weekend to include:

- TROOPER 1 (the State Police Helicopter)
- State Police planes (the State Police fixed wing)
- Radar and Laser (speed enforcement units)
- State Police Cruisers
- Unmarked state Police Cruisers
- Simulated "Spot Check" for seatbelt use and DWI
- Car seat and seat belt use

Several speakers will take part in this Press Conference to convey the messages of safety on the roadways throughout Connecticut. These speakers include Commissioner Leonard C. Boyle- the Commissioner of the Department of Public Safety, Col. Edward J. Lynch the Commanding Officer of the Connecticut State Police, and Dr. Peter Jacoby- a trauma physician
