This is not an extension of time to pay your tax.

You must file this form by the due date of your original return or your extension request will be denied (See instructions). You will be subject to interest and penalty on any amount of tax that is not paid by the original due date of your return. An extension granted by the Internal Revenue Service does not automatically extend the Connecticut filing date.

I request a six-month extension of time to October 15, 2001, to file my Connecticut Income Tax Return for the year beginning January 1, 2000, and ending December 31, 2000.

If you are not a calendar year taxpayer, complete the following statement:

I request a six-month extension of time to _____, to file my Connecticut Income Tax Return for the year beginning _____ and ending ► _____.

I have requested a federal extension on federal Form 4868, Application for Automatic Extension of Time to File U.S. Individual Income Tax Return, for taxable year 2000. YES NO

If NO, the reason for the Connecticut extension is _____

YOU WILL BE NOTIFIED ONLY IF YOUR EXTENSION REQUEST IS DENIED

FORM CT-1040 EXT Instructions

Purpose

Use Form CT-1040 EXT to request a six-month extension to file your Connecticut income tax return for individuals. This form also extends the time to file your individual use tax. It will not be necessary to include a reason for the Connecticut extension request if you have already filed an extension on federal Form 4868 with the Internal Revenue Service. If you did not file a federal Form 4868, you can apply for a six-month extension to file your Connecticut income tax return provided you have good cause for your request.

How to Get an Extension to File

To obtain a Connecticut extension of time to file, you must:

1. Complete Form CT-1040 EXT in its entirety;
2. File it on or before the due date of your return; and
3. Pay the amount shown on Line 7.

Any payment made with this form is considered an income tax payment regardless of the amounts you enter on Line 1 and Line 2. Your signature is not required on this form. The Department of Revenue Services (DRS) will notify you only if your request is denied.

IMPORTANT: Form CT-1040 EXT extends only the time to file your Connecticut income tax return. Form CT-1040 EXT does not extend the time to pay your income tax.

You may qualify for a six-month extension of time to pay your tax. To request this extension you must file Form CT-1127, Application for Extension of Time for Payment of Income Tax, with your timely filed Connecticut income tax return or extension.

U.S. Citizens or Residents Living Outside the United States and Puerto Rico

You must file this form if you are:

- A U.S. citizen or resident living outside the United States and Puerto Rico and your tax home (within the meaning of I.R.C. §162(a)(2)) is outside the United States and Puerto Rico; or
- In the armed forces of the United States serving outside the United States and Puerto Rico on the date your federal income tax return is due, and are unable to file a timely Connecticut income tax return.

You must pay the amount of tax that you expect to owe on or before the original due date of the return (see Interest and Penalty). Explain on the front of this form that you are a U.S. citizen or resident living outside the United States and Puerto Rico, or are in the armed forces of the United States serving outside the United States and Puerto Rico, and that you qualify for an automatic, two-month federal income tax extension.

If your application is approved, the due date will be extended for six months (October 15, 2001, for calendar year taxpayers). If you are still unable to file your return and you have applied for and were granted an extension of time to file for federal purposes using federal Form 2350, you must file your Connecticut return using the federal extension due date and you must attach a copy of the federal Form 2350 approval notice to the front of your Connecticut return.

When To File Form CT-1040 EXT

File Form CT-1040 EXT on or before April 17, 2001. If your taxable year is other than the calendar year, file Form CT-1040 EXT on or before the 15th day of the fourth month following the close of your taxable year. If the due date falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, the next business day is the due date.

Payment Options

To Pay by Credit Card: You may pay your expected 2000 Connecticut income tax due by credit card if you filed a 1999 Connecticut income tax return. Call Official Payments Corporation toll-free at 1-800-2PAY-TAX (1-800-272-9829) and follow the instructions OR visit www.officialpayments.com and select Payment Center. You will be asked to enter the Connecticut Jurisdiction Code: 1777. You will be charged a convenience fee by the credit card service provider of 2.5% of what you are paying. You may elect to cancel the transaction. At the end of the call, you will be given a confirmation number for your records.

Your payment will be effective on the date you make the charge. Do not send in Form CT-1040 EXT if you make your payment by credit card. All credit card payments for extension requests will be accepted by the credit card service provider, however, if your payment is late, DRS will notify you in writing that your request is denied.

To Pay by Mail: Make your check or money order payable to the "Commissioner of Revenue Services." Write your Social Security Number(s) and "2000 Form CT-1040 EXT" on the front of your check or money order. Be sure to sign your check and paper clip it to the front of your return. Do not send cash.

Interest and Penalty

In general, penalty and interest apply to any portion of the tax that is not paid on or before the original due date of the return. Interest will be computed on the underpayment of tax at the rate of 1% (.01) per month or fraction thereof computed from the statutory due date to the date of payment.

Late Payment Penalty: The penalty for underpayment of tax is 10% (.10) of such amount due.

Late Filing Penalty: In the event that no tax is due, the Commissioner of Revenue Services may impose a $50 penalty for the late filing of any return or report that is required by law to be filed.
