  - b. Each standing implementation committee shall have purview over one of the following subject matter areas: (1) improve and expand access to qualified professionals and effective evidence-based services; (2) improve and expand access to training, consultation, and learning opportunities for providers, professionals, and families; (3) improve and expand access to a comprehensive service resource guide; (4) implement effective services; and (5) analyze public and private reimbursement for autism spectrum disorder services.
  - c. Membership on the implementation committees shall include council members and consumers, families, advocates, licensed professionals and service providers appointed by the chairpersons of the council.
  - d. Council members may serve on one or more implementation committee.
  - e. Each implementation committee shall have one or two council liaisons responsible for reporting the implementation committee's activities and progress to the council at each council meeting.
  - f. Implementation committee reports may include: current goals, progress towards goals, current activities, roadblocks or challenges to meeting goals and future steps.
2. The council may create ad hoc committees:
  - a. Appointments to ad hoc committees shall be made by the chairperson of the council with the approval of the council members.
  - b. The powers of ad hoc committees shall be advisory and limited to making recommendations to the full council, unless specifically authorized.

Article VI – Amendments to the Bylaws

The bylaws of the Autism Spectrum Disorder Advisory Council may be amended, or repealed, by a majority vote of the appointed members of the council at any meeting of the council; provided written notice of any proposed amendment shall have been given to each member at least thirty days prior to such meeting.

Autism Spectrum Disorder Advisory Council Meeting Policies

The following policies shall govern the meetings of the Autism Spectrum Disorders Advisory Council.

1. Length of Meetings:

The maximum length of time of a meeting shall be two to three hours

2. Number of Meetings:

The council shall meet not less than four times per year and at such other times as requested by the chairpersons.

3. Public Participation:

The council recognizes the importance of the public's input in its role as an advisory council for the Department of Developmental Services, and in its role in providing recommendations to the Governor and the General Assembly on legislative issues pertaining to autism spectrum disorder.

In order to complete the council's meeting agenda in a timely fashion, the council reserves the right to limit the length of public comment during a meeting.

- a. Each individual wishing to speak before the council, during the public comment portion of the meeting, shall be allowed three minutes in which to comment and, at the discretion of the chairperson, may be allowed additional time to complete said comments.
- b. The chairperson shall ask each person speaking before the council to give their name and address for the record.
- c. The chairperson may limit public comments to the first thirty minutes of a council meeting.
- d. The chairperson may request that a spokesperson be delegated from among persons wishing to speak on similar subject matter.
- e. The council may request individuals to provide further written information on subject matter brought before the council during the public comment period.
- f. The chairperson may recognize council members during the public comment period for purposes of asking questions to clarify a speaker's comments.
- g. The council shall place all issues brought forward during the public comment period on the following meeting's agenda to be discussed as part of the council's ongoing review of public concerns.

4. Council Member Attendance:

In the event any member fails to attend two consecutive meetings of the council, the chairpersons of the council shall contact the member and determine whether good cause exists for any such absences. If the chairpersons conclude that good cause does not exist for any such absences, the chairpersons shall notify the council at its next meeting. With the approval of the council that none of the member's absences is attributable to good cause, the chairpersons shall request the appointing authority to review the appointment and consider such member's removal and replacement.

5. Location of Meetings:

Most meetings of the council will be held at the Legislative Office Building, 300 Capitol Avenue, Hartford, CT 06106. Other council meetings may be held elsewhere in the state. Such meetings may focus on areas of particular interest to a region, regional public participation, or familiarizing members of the council with regional programs or services. The location of any council meeting shall be in the meeting notice, on the meeting agenda, and posted to the council's webpage.
