The Farmington Valley Film Commission is a group comprised of local industry professionals, writers, public relations staff, filmmakers, graphic designers and many more, all volunteering their time to facilitate the production of film, television, commercial and advertising in the Farmington Valley. The FVFC is a part of the Farmington Valley Visitors Association.

We hope this annual contest will encourage young filmmakers, promote the Farmington Valley as a site for more film production, and enhance the economic environment for local businesses in Avon, Burlington, Canton, East Granby, Farmington, Granby, New Hartford and Simsbury.
