

The 15th Annual Mary and Louis Fusco Distinguished Lecture

Presents
An evening with

Alan Alda

Best known for his portrayal as Hawkeye Pierce on the landmark TV series *M*A*S*H*, actor Alan Alda is also a writer, science advocate, author, and director. Throughout his 40-year career, he has won seven Emmys, six Golden Globes, and three DGA awards for directing. In addition to hosting PBS's "Scientific American Frontiers" for 11 years, Alda is the author of two bestselling memoirs.

Southern Connecticut
State University

- Friday, May 3, 2013
- Lecture 7 p.m.
- Reception to follow

Sponsorship Packages available:

Gold Sponsorship $5,000

- Eight tickets to the private reception and premium seating at the lecture
- Recognition in event advertising, press materials, and e-communications, including a half-page advertisement in the program

Silver Sponsorship $2,500

- Four tickets to the private reception and premium seating at the lecture
- Recognition in event advertising, press materials, and e-communications, including a quarter-page advertisement in the program

Bronze Sponsorship $1,000

- Two tickets to the private reception and premium seating at the lecture
- Recognition in event advertising, press materials, e-communications, and event program

In addition,
all sponsorships
above receive:

- Photo opportunity with Alan Alda
- Autographed copy of his book
- Recognition at the reception and lecture
- Reserved parking

For further information or to reserve your sponsorship, please contact:

John Rochette, Development Office
(203) 392-5065 • RochetteJ1@SouthernCT.edu

Individual reception tickets also available for $125 each. Call (203) 392-5598.