The Contractor shall be compensated for fees based upon work performed, documented, and accepted by the Exchange.

The Contractor shall submit invoices on a periodic basis, not less often than monthly. Invoices shall, at a minimum, include the Contractor name, the Contract Number, the Contractor's Federal Employer Identification Number, the billing period, and an itemization of expenses by line item.

Invoices for deliverables shall include an identification of the deliverable; if printed material, a copy of the deliverable; and the date that the deliverable was provided to the Exchange.

Invoices for services billed by the hour shall include the name and title of the individual providing the services, the dates worked, the number of hours worked each day with a brief synopsis of the work performed, the rate being charged for the individual, and the total cost for that person's work during the billing period.

Invoices for expenses, if allowed, shall include a detailed account of expenses specifying the day when and purpose for which they were incurred as well as all receipts, invoices, bills and other available documentation or if no documentation is available, a detailed accounting of the computation used to determine the reimbursable cost, as evidence of the actual cost of such expenses. Such expenses may include, but are not limited to: mileage at current State of Connecticut approved reimbursement rate; costs of travel including coach airfare and hotels; and office expenses such as, phone calls, copying, postage and package delivery incurred in connection with the service pertaining to this Agreement. All expenses will be reimbursed at cost.

The Exchange shall assume no liability for payment for services under the terms of this Agreement until the Contractor is notified that the Agreement has been accepted by the contracting agency.

The parties understand that the Work Stream III scope and pricing reflects Contractor's best present estimate for the work scope and pricing necessary to cover such deliverables. If necessary, Contractor and the Exchange shall work together to update scope and pricing estimates for such work as it progresses via mutually agreed upon written amendments.

All other terms and requirements of the Agreement between the Exchange and the Contractor shall remain in full force and effect.

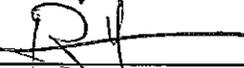

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have signed this instrument as of the date first written above.
